LOBBYING WASHINGTON, D.C. FOR FEDERAL AID

Supervisor Greg Cox will travel with a group of San Diego civic and community leaders to Washington, D.C. to seek support from federal officials on a variety of projects that are important to the region. Among the issues to be discussed are funding for a third border crossing at East Otay Mesa and increased customs and border security.

Monday through Wednesday. Supervisor Cox will be available Thursday for interviews.

OPEN HOUSE AT NEW YOUTH AND FAMILY TRANSITION CENTER

Supervisor Greg Cox will attend an open house for the Casey Foundation's new Youth and Family Transition Center in Old Town. Founded in 1948, the Foundation fosters public policies and provides grants to help meet the needs of vulnerable children and families.

4 p.m. Thursday, October 4, 3878 Old Town Avenue, Suite 100, San Diego.
